Came on for consideration the above-referenced criminal action, the Court having heretofore referred the request for the revocation of Defendant's supervised release to the United States Magistrate Judge for proper consideration. The Court has received the Report and Recommendation of the United States Magistrate Judge pursuant to its order. With Defendant having waived allocution before the Court as well as his right to object to the report of the Magistrate Judge, the Court is of the opinion that the findings and conclusions of the Magistrate Judge are correct.

It is further ORDERED that Defendant's supervised release is hereby REVOKED.

It is further ORDERED that Defendant be committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of twelve (12) months, followed by four (4) months in a residential halfway house, with a Life term of supervised release to follow.

You will pay any costs related to the monitoring of their authorized device and must advise anyone in your household that may use any authorized device in question that monitoring software has been installed. The probation officer will ensure your employer is aware of your criminal history, and you must agree to use the device for work purposes only; (2) You must not attempt to remove, tamper with, or in any way circumvent the monitoring software. You must disclose all on-line account information, including usernames and passwords, to the U.S. Probation Office. You must also, if requested, provide a list of all software/hardware on your computer, as well as telephone, cable, or Internet service provider billing records, and any other information deemed necessary by the probation office to monitor your computer usage; (3) You must participate in a program of testing and treatment for alcohol abuse and follow the rules and regulations of that program until discharged. The probation officer, in consultation with the treatment provider, will supervise your participation in the program. You must pay any cost associated with treatment and testing; (4) You must abstain completely from the use of alcohol during the term of supervised release. You must also refrain from the purchase, possession, or use of digital cameras; digital recorders; or any other type of recording and/or photographic equipment; (5) You must submit to a search of your person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and effects at any time, with or without a warrant, by any law enforcement or probation officer with reasonable suspicion concerning unlawful conduct or a violation of your conditions of supervision; and (6) You must reside in a Residential Reentry Center or similar facility, in prerelease component, for a period of 4 months, to commence upon release from confinement, and you must observe the rules of that facility.
